

TAYLOR SWIFT SUPER BOWL PROPS

As sports betting expands across the United States, newcomers are learning there's more to the activity than just the moneyline—that is, simply betting on the winner of a game or event. A prop (or proposition) bet is a type of side wager on parts of a game or event that may have nothing to do with the final outcome. Use this sheet to set up some fun and friendly props with your football-watching friends, or just see how many you can get right!
